HUGHES STATES OPINION ON THE PEACE LEAGUE

Would Adopt a Prudent
Course On Entering League.

HUGHES SEES NEED OF PACT
BUT WANTS INTERPRETATIONS

Against Submission of Domestic Questions and Article 10.

Washington, July 28.—Charles E. Hughes, in a reply to a letter from Senator Frederick Hale, Republican, asking him for his views on the League of Nations, states that it is his opinion the United States senate would pursue a prudent course in entering the proposed league, "with reservation of a reasonable character, which would meet ready assent, and thus establish a condition of amity at the earliest possible moment."

In his letter, which was made public here today, Mr. Hughes suggests a number of reservations and interpretations before ratification. Mr. Hughes although very clearly stating the need of a League of Nations, points out that this country should pursue "the middle ground between aloofness and injurious commitments" in order to safeguard American rights and integrity.

"While the importance of Article X is strongly emphasized by its supporters," Mr. Hughes asserts, "it is objectionable because it is an illusory engagement."

"Whether we go to war to preserve the territorial integrity of another state in a situation not now disclosed or described so that the merits of the case may be judged, will depend upon the action of congress, and that action will be taken according to the conviction of our people as to our duty in the light of the demands of the justice as they appear when the exigency arises," he declared. "We should not enter into a guaranty which would expose us to the charge of bad faith, or of having defaulted in our obligation to maintain the peace, and that congress in refusing to make war had acted in accordance with its conception of duty in the circumstances disclosed."

Mr. Hughes states that he does not favor the elimination of Article 10, but that a clear interpretative statement be adopted, which would adequately recognize American rights.

Mr. Hughes is of the opinion that the senate should adopt the resolution embodying the reservations and interpretations about as follows:

The senate of the United States advises and consents to the ratification of said treaty with the following reservations and understandings as to its interpretation and effects to be made a part of the instrument of ratification:

First—That whenever two years notice of withdrawal from the League of Nations shall have been given, as provided in Article 17 of the covenant, the power given the notice shall cease to be a member of the league or subject to the obligations of the covenant of the league, notwithstanding any claim, charge or finding of the non-fulfillment of any (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

AUSTRIA PROTESTS ON FINANCIAL CLAUSES OF PEACE TREATY

Vienna, Friday, July 25.—The financial clauses of the peace treaty offered Austria by the allies are being strongly protested both by the newspaper and by financial circles. Both these quarters go so far as to predict the bankruptcy of Austria within a few weeks, unless financial terms are modified.

SAYS CRUELITIES ARE EXAGGERATED

Paris, Sunday, July 27.—(Havas).—Henry Morgenthau, former American ambassador to Turkey, appointed by President Wilson as special American commissioner to investigate reported pogroms in Poland, told newspaper men here today that the short visit which he had made in Poland had convinced him that the reports of the pogroms were tremendously exaggerated.

CHILD AGED 15 TAKES OWN LIFE

Mother Had Reprimanded
Her and Louise Cramer
Takes Carbolic Acid.

Following punishment after a childish quarrel with her sister, Louise, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cramer, drank carbolic acid Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock and died in five minutes.

The mother stated to Coroner Richards when he viewed the body soon after at the home two and a half miles north of Outville, that she and her husband were entertaining company under the shade trees in the yard and the children, of which there are several, were playing in the house. The play terminated in a quarrel among the younger children and Louise and an older sister attempted to pacify those who were fussing and the quarrel came general and that she had to go in and "settle them all," which she did with a few slaps, then returning to the yard. In a few minutes she was called to the house to see what ailed Louise, who seemed violently ill, and she and the family found her lying at the foot of the bed and that she had taken carbolic acid kept in the house for disinfectant purposes. She died in a few minutes.

Funeral arrangements have not been made completed.

Race Fights Spread All Over
City—"Black Belt" Under Police Patrol.

Chicago, July 28.—Trouble between whites and negroes was renewed today in Chicago's "black belt" when Moses Thomas, a negro, fired several shots at a wagon load of workmen being taken to a south side factory. When an attempt was made by whites to disarm Thomas a dozen negroes rushed to his assistance. The police quelled the disturbance and reported that nobody had been injured.

The disturbance occurred on Wentworth avenue between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-seventh streets where many negro women live. A riot call was sent to the Deering street police station but when a squad of policemen arrived on the scene the fighting was over. Hundreds of white men and negroes were gathered in groups on the sidewalk and patrolman Philip Grako had Thomas in custody.

The police dispersed the crowd and withdrew. Police today had been unable to find any trace of the unidentified white boy reported drowned yesterday in Lake Michigan at the foot of Twenty-ninth street during the race rioting. Fifty mounted police and 100 patrolmen have been assigned to guard the negro district while 500 policemen were held in reserve at south side station ready for immediate service in the event of further disturbances.

The patrolmen were instructed to search all negroes for firearms and to prevent whites and blacks from congregating in groups of more than three persons. Coroner Peter N. Hoffman in opening the inquest over the unidentified negro boy who was drowned in yesterday's disturbance announced he would (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

President Belisario Porras, of the Republic of Panama, with members of his family and his staff, made an official call on Admiral Hugh Rodman, commanding the fleet today. President Porras was given full presidential honors, including a salute of 21 guns.

Thousands of sailors from the fleet took peaceful possession of Panama today. They enjoyed their visit ashore and no disorder of any sort occurred. Until recently American soldiers and sailors were not allowed to visit Panama. Admiral Rodman, however, had expressed confidence that the visit of his men ashore would be entirely pleasant and harmonious.

AVIATOR AT LAKE INJURED IN FALL

Engine Trouble Causes the Plane To Drop West of the Park—Lieut. McConnell
Not Seriously Hurt.

Thousands of people at Buckeye Lake Park experienced a thrill yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock when they saw the big airplane being driven by Lieut. Dick McConnell, suddenly point its nose to the ground and drop with lightning rapidity about two miles southeast of the park.

Machines at once started down the back road and McConnell was found by the side of his machine in a meadow, partly unconscious and the plane badly wrecked. A physician from Millersport was called and the injuries of the aviator were examined and he was given first aid after which he was taken to a nearby farm house where a further examination revealed that no bones were broken. Later he was taken to his room across the lake at the Shell Beach hotel and this afternoon was reported as having passed a comfortable night with the indications that he would be out in a few days.

Lieut. McConnell, whose home is at Knoxville, Tenn., was commissioned in the Canadian Army and was a member of the Royal Canadian Flying Corps and after receiving his discharge purchased a plane and flew from Toronto to different points in this country, finally landing at Buckeye Lake, where he decided to establish a livery, making his initial flight several weeks ago, having carried scores of passengers since that time.

Yesterday he had made a number of flights and taken up quite a few passengers. On his last trip with a passenger he discovered that he had engaged a mechanic to repair the engine of the passenger to flight while he went up again in an endeavor to repair the motor trouble. It was then that the big airplane took the nose dive and fell.

It was miraculous that Lieut. McConnell was not more seriously hurt and the report gained circulation that he had been killed.

The Mexican authorities said they feared the bandits would murder the boy unless they received the money.

Secretary Lansing said the Mexican foreign office had agreed to refund the ransom of the ransom and to take measures for the capture and punishment of the bandits.

The kidnapping took place last Thursday, at the Thompson ranch 30 miles from Mexico City. The ransom note was received on Friday.

Licking County's World Champion.

In James G. Cooper, mail carrier, Licking county has a world champion. Cooper has sold more War Savings Stamps than any other letter carrier. He is the leader among 100,000 men.

Last month Licking county led all counties in the nation in W. S. S. sales. The letter carriers' contest ends August 9; the Victory Shaft race ends September 1st.

The only thing that will keep Cooper out of first place and prevent Licking county from winning the $10,000 prize is over-confidence.

The way to make both Cooper and Licking county win is to buy W. S. S. now to the limit of your ability.

The price of War Savings Stamps will advance next Friday, August 1. Two hundred stamps costing $836 now will be worth $838 next Friday. W. S. S. may be cashed any time at a PROFIT if held a few days.

TENTH WEEK FOR DEBATE ON TREATY

Expected That Statements
From President May
Clarify Two Issues.

Washington, July 28.—The beginning today of the tenth week of the senate debate on the peace treaty was accompanied by many evidences of expectancy that statements from President Wilson soon might clarify the two issues around which the decision has centered—Shantung and reservations.

Indications at the White House that the president might within a few days take a public stand regarding the reservation proposal led senate leaders to believe that the lines of that controversy might speedily be drawn.

Whether the president would express readiness to accept reservations or otherwise, the subject of the treaty remained a subject of conjecture, but more than one Republican senator who had seen him at the White House believed his stand will not be an uncompromising one for unreserved ratification.

The hope of democrats regarding the Shantung provision was based on the president's diplomatic conversation with Japan to secure a public declaration of his future policy regarding the peninsula including preferably the publication of the secret understanding with China for its restoration.

The speeches of Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, replying to criticism on Article X of the league covenant, was the only one which previous notice had been given for today in the senate.

NEW YORK PAPERS ASK COX TO

Many Counties Have Started Grand Jury Investigation.

Columbus, July 28.—State and local officials were making time today in the food cost probe into the cost of living. The state attorney prosecuting attorneys with Attorney General John S. Price, when a definite program will be marked out. Mr. Price stated today that he expected every prosecuting attorney to be represented in person at Wednesday's meeting.

While waiting for the Wednesday conference, local officials are said to be making a survey of conditions in their counties and getting a line on the situation so proper recommendations can be made at the conference. It is expected that Governor Cox also will attend the conference.

Attorney General Price was busy in the morning with the urgent work of his office preparatory to devoting his entire time to the food probe when the machinery is once set in motion. It was stated at the executive office that matters probably will rest until after the Wednesday conference unless something new should develop in the meantime.

The interest of the general public in the contemplated grand jury investigations is manifest in the communications received at the office of attorney general and by Governor Cox. A Chicago traveling salesman writing from Springfield, O., to Attorney General Price says he was charged $1.50 for an ordinary meal in a Columbus restaurant last week. One of the items most bitterly complained of was head lettuce with dressing at 75 cents.

Prospects of the food investigation started in Ohio by Governor Cox and Attorney General Price are becoming nationwide with the federal government taking (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

The Colorado senator said he was leaving the treaty for the fourth time and was not yet ready to announce his attitude.

Declaring that "the idea that the treaty and League of Nations will keep about permanent war and peace was purely illusory," Senator Thomas said he would address the senate tomorrow on one phase of the treaty—the effect it might have on the peace of the world.

Representative Hays of Ohio, who in an address in the house last week urged military intervention in the war, said he was not ready to leave the house. He said he was not ready to leave the house. He said he was not ready to leave the house.

TWO NEGROES

make a thorough investigation of the entire affair. These things have happened in Chicago before and I think it is time that the measures were changed by the authorities to prevent a repetition of yesterday's disastrous scenes," said Governor Hoffman.

The situation in the "black belt" of Chicago, where the rioting took place, resulted in the death of one negro and the injury perhaps of an or more whites and blacks, including four patrolmen, was under control of the police early today.

Accounts of the origin of the trouble differ, but the version accepted by the police today is that the fighting started at the Twenty-Ninth street beach where the whites and colored people are accustomed to swim in Lake Michigan, although the two races are separated by an imaginary line. This version of the affair says that a negro boy on a raft crossed the boundary line and that white boys threw stones, knocking the negro into the water. He was drowned. A general fight developed between the races and riot calls brought hundreds of police into the negro district, the center of which is around Fifty First and State streets. More than a mile from the beach.

Negroes requested the police to arrest a white boy and when they refused, the negroes began to beat the white. Colored bathers from another beach at Twenty-Fifth street, attracted by the fighting, came in force to the beach and soon stones and clubs were hurled in all directions, many people, both white and black being injured by the missiles.

After the fighting near the beach had been quelled, trouble broke out further west, near the center of the city. John O'Brien, a policeman, was attacked by a mob at Twenty-Ninth and State streets after he had tried to separate fellow policemen from a crowd of negroes. Several shots were fired in his direction and he was struck in the arm. He drew his revolver and fired into the crowd, three colored men being hit.

After the police officers had dispersed the crowds along State street and other parts of the thickly populated colored district, white from other parts of the city dragged negroes from street cars and beat them severely in several places during the night, but according to the police records early today only two fatalities resulted from the rioting.

Virtually all of the negroes on the south side of the city and many have acquired property in desirable neighbor hoods occupied by the whites. This has led to many minor clashes between the races in a number of instances in recent months, but have been exploded in buildings occupied by negroes.

DESIGN CHOSEN BY CUBANS FOR GOMEZ STATUE CAUSES DISPUTE

The much disputed statue by Sig. Aldo Gambo and the statue of Gomez mounted on a Cuban charger which forms the apex of the statue.

The statue by Sig. Aldo Gambo, chosen by the Cuban government to commemorate the exploits of the late General Maximo Gomez, leader of the Cuban revolutionists, and known as the Liberator, has opened a bitter dispute. The Cuban government appropriated $175,000 for this memorial and the matter was made one for competition by the sculptors of the world. The Italian, Gambo, submitted the design which won favor in the eyes of the Cuban committee. Senor Huerta Cubarraca of Madrid, won second prize, and Gutson Borglum third prize. The dispute led by Borglum is bitter and he and his followers claim that the design does not conform to the conditions, that it cannot be completed for the allotted amount. Gambo says he has fulfilled the conditions. The winning design represents the heroic figure of the general mounted on a Cuban charger, at the apex of the high pedestal around which are massed figures representing the several elements in early Cuban life.

"ACE" MOTOR TRUCK BUILT IN NEWARK THOROUGHLY TESTED

Spending $10,000 for the satisfaction of being sure the new "Ace" truck was absolutely safe before it was announced to the public is the distinction claimed by the American Motor Truck Co. of Newark. It was a question of build and reliability, said Col. J. D. Potter, president of the company. As soon as we thought everything was right we immediately started a series of tests designed to bring out any weakness that could be discovered. We put on enormous overloads and drove the truck through the roughest going that could be found. We gave the motor long distance tests under the hardest conditions imaginable. Then we wore down the job and gave every separate part a thorough examination.

ing a hand in it is said to be indicated by interest shown by officials and the public in other states. One of the leading New York papers has asked Governor Cox to outline a course through which the investigation can be made nationwide. At the executive office it was stated that the governor probably will make such an outline after the meeting of prosecuting attorneys with the attorney-general, Wednesday.

The fact that Ohio food situation as well as the situation in other states may require a general investigation by the federal government or all the states before the entire facts can be ascertained, it is believed. The necessity for such a general investigation may be developed at the Wednesday conference, it is believed, may urge the federal government and other states to take a hand.

ILLNESS UPSET HIS NERVES AND MADE ARM NUMB

H. L. Martin Tells How Nerv-Worth Did What Doctors Couldn't Do.

This was a serious case. It looked very bad for that arm. But that was before Mr. Martin banked on the power of Nerv-Worth. Afterward—let Mr. Martin tell the story as he did a short time ago to his Zanesville, Ohio, drug-store.

Zimmer's Drug Store—I met with an accident some time ago which left me in a very nervous condition all over. I tried different doctors and could get no relief. They all said I would probably be troubled all my life.

I read where Nerv-Worth had been helping so many people and decided to try it. The first bottle made me feel better and after taking three bottles THE NUMBNESS WAS ALL GONE from my arm and I felt as good as I ever did. I surely recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone suffering from nervous troubles.

STRIKE OF TRAINMEN THROWS STEEL MEN OUT

Cleveland, July 28.—General steel mills and furnaces of the American Steel & Wire company in Newburg were shut down today because of the strike of trainmen of the Newburg & South Shore railroad, according to company officials.

About one-third of the 5000 employees were thrown out of work. Operations were continued in a few plants.

Two hundred and fifty engineers, firemen and switchmen of the railroad who move the coal, ore and stone, which furnish the fuel, and handle the product inside the plant are on strike.

A preliminary report by Dr. Spenser said traces of arsenic was found in the stomach and today's report is expected to show whether it was possible for the embalming process to cause arsenic in the vital organs of Kabers body.

CAR MEN OFFER A NEW CONTRACT

Agreement With War Labor Board Expires August 1.

The contract with the war labor board, under which the employees of the Ohio Electric Railway lines are working, expires August 1, and the company is considering a new contract presented by the employees.

When the car men struck last fall for to increase the matter was taken over by the war labor board, and they returned to work under a six months' agreement, and this agreement expires the first of August. The new contract has been offered by the employees but what action the company intends to take has not been announced.

MRS. G. LIMING STRUCK BY MACHINE

Mrs. Liming was walking west in Main street and as she crossed Morris street the car driven by a man named Osburn, living north of town, came from the east and turned north into Morris street, hitting her and knocking her down. She was carried to the home of Charles Chenoweth nearby, and Hader's ambulance then took her to the City Hospital where Dr. H. J. Davis attended her. An examination showed that no bones were broken, but she had many painful bruises. Her condition this morning was satisfactory, but she will remain in the hospital for a few days.

AMUSEMENTSAUDITORIUM

Manager Fenberg announces: "The Lone Star Ranger," with Wm. Farnum in the title role, as the big attraction at the Auditorium theatre today and tomorrow. This latest vehicle of the celebrated William Fox star is founded on the well-known novel by Zane Grey, depicting the life of the famous Rangers who succeeded after many thrilling adventures, in riding the Texas border of cattle thieves and outlaws. It is reported that Wm. Farnum never has done finer work than in this role. The scenery is typical of Texas, and a fine love story is built on a thrilling background of truly historic border life.

This is the last of the Farnum pictures to be shown on the Standard program, for early in September, William Fox presents this noted star in a new series of photoplays, "Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle" is shown also in his latest hit, "A Desert Hero," a Arbuckle-Farnum mount feature that delighted thousands at the Auditorium yesterday.

"A Desert Hero" Scores.

Fatty Arbuckle, the famous Paramount comedian, has scored a big hit in "A Desert Hero," his latest comedy which did a runaway business at the Auditorium yesterday. It is a funny creation and contains many situations that thrill. Molly Malone is the leading woman and has a unique role. It is seen tonight for the last time.

"The Brand"

In Rex Beach's "The Brand," about to be presented by Goldwyn at the Auditorium beginning Friday, the hand of the author is seen from first to last. The fact is his personal supervision contributes largely to the success of his photodrama, produced for Goldwyn. Never writing about a locale with which he is not thoroughly familiar, the knowledge he brings to the task of visualizing his stories on the silver sheet cannot be overestimated. The production of "The Brand" exacted much from the novelist. Considerable of the action transpires in an Alaskan dance hall, a familiar enough sight in motion pictures, and finally the setting is a faithful picture of the original. Mr. Beach proposed no departures when the time came to erect this setting. He insisted, however, that every detail should be perfect.

Constance Talmadge.

"Romance and Arabella," the Constance Talmadge Select Picture feature, will come to the Auditorium for three days commencing Wednesday.

Miss Talmadge has a lot of admirers in Newark who will be glad to know that they will eventually see her in "Romance and Arabella" this time.

"Peck's Bad Boy."

Charles Benner's new 1920 production of "Peck's Bad Boy" will be seen at the Auditorium next Saturday afternoon and evening. In offering this well known play to the amusement lovers of Newark, Mr. Benner promises something new in the line of amusement. Although "Peck's Bad Boy" has been scheduled around the country for years and everywhere it has been presented there has been but one verdict by press and public, namely, that it is one of the most entertaining and satisfying stage creations which has ever been devised. Each one of its characters is such a person as one meets every day in real life and the mixups in which the characters are pictured are just as natural as they can be. This season everything is new as it has been entirely reconstructed by Irving Berlin, who has turned it into a musical farce that will surely make you laugh from the rise of the first curtain until the fall of the last.

ALHAMBRA

The Better Half.

Alice Brady, popular screen actress, is the feature attraction at the Alhambra today and tomorrow. She is seen in the Select Photoplay in five parts "The Better Half" adapted from Miriam Michelson's famous novel "Michael Thwaites' Wife." Thousands have read this clever book and now many will want to see the photoplay with Miss Brady in a dual role, that of Louise and Trixie, two sisters. Twin Sisters are as different as daylight from night, the likeness causing much trouble. Newark movie fans will enjoy "The Better Half" as the scenes, scenery, costumes, actors etc., are very good. A comedy and Current Event are added features.

Cowardice Court.

Peggy Hyland in the well-known story, "Cowardice Court," by George Bar McCutcheon, will be the feature of the bill, beginning at the Alhambra Theatre, Wednesday. The production, shoes and in a short time the young man returned them repaired.

Good place to enjoy yourself while your shoes are being repaired.

NEWARK MAN ABLE TO WORK FIRST TIME IN MONTHS

DRECO GAVE RELIEF.

Claims the New Medicine Has Made a Big Improvement in Him.

"Yesterday was the first time I have been able to do a lick of work in months, and I give the credit to Dreco, the new medicine," declared Mr. Dawson Long of 14 Western avenue, Newark, O., in a signed statement.

"I was weak and nervous, had no energy nor strength to do a thing; my bowels were bound up, liver sluggish, and my stomach seemed unable to get any strength from the food I ate. Whenever I'd lie down I would have to have my head propped up, as I couldn't stand to feel like the blood was rushing to my head."

"I went down and talked to the Dreco man about the new medicine, and got a bottle. It started my bowels to moving and eased my stomach. In a few days I was feeling so much better, and I kept on taking Dreco; it is wonderful what it has done for me. I feel like a big load has been lifted from my existence; my liver is active again; no more dizzy spells; food digests and strength comes me; in fact, I feel that I am on the road to recovery and expect to be taking Dreco for its great medicine."

It is highly important for the bowels to keep active; that the kidneys do not become damaged; that the liver supplies the proper secretions to the stomach, so that digestion may be perfect.

Dreco, the natural herb medicine, acts on these vital organs (toning them so that they perform their duties as Nature intended they should).

Mr. Foxworth, the well known Dreco agent, has headquarters at Evans' Cur Rate Drug store, to meet the local public and explain the merits of this great remedy. See him today. Adv.

Milady's Boudoir

Toilet Creams.

It is necessary to understand the process of preparation to make toilet creams at home satisfactorily. After purchasing the ingredients for cold cream, provide the utensils for the mixing. Only glass, porcelain or china should be used. Metal will make a cream dark in color and frequently has a harmful chemical effect. A large cup or small china bowl serves every purpose for melting the fats. This receptacle should be placed in another which should contain boiling water.

Watch the melting of the fats carefully for the cold cream will be ruined if they are allowed to become hot. The fats should be softened, even melted, but they must not be left in the heat until a moment after this stage is reached. The cream will never congeal if the fats are once allowed to get hot.

Add the oil to the fats and, if the cold liquid hardens, return the bowl to the hot bath until the mass becomes soft. The congealing matter must be delayed until all of the ingredients have been put together. The great secret of a smooth, snow white paste, lies in keeping the mixture cool while heating.

The reason why so many and it is next to impossible to compound face powders successfully is due to the fact that they do not properly sift them. Face powders must be sifted many times, through bolting silk, coarse muslin, or brown paper. Misting silk is so expensive that few can afford it, else, coarse muslin is the next best agent for the purpose.

When, as is the case with many powders, a perfumed oil is to be added, the mixing becomes more difficult. The oil should be dropped alone and, by degrees, the powder added. If the powder is reversed the powder will be spoiled.

Our Boys and Girls

Is the family table a place for feeding only the bodies of children, or is it a place where their minds may also be fed? In most American families the longest consecutive time the members spend together is at the table. The largest opportunity for the home-training of children is here either enjoyed or neglected.

The mood in which children come to their meals is peculiarly receptive, or is it a place where their minds may also be fed? In most American families the longest consecutive time the members spend together is at the table. The largest opportunity for the home-training of children is here either enjoyed or neglected.

Manners are, of course, learned mostly through imitation. If a child has all his life sat at a table with those who are mannerly he learns the technique of taking food properly without much instruction. Still, the ravenously hungry child needs some discipline while he is being taught. It is absolutely necessary that to a child there shall be no such separate code as company manners.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, July 23.—The next important social event which has occurred in the village in many months was the wedding in the Baptist church, Saturday evening, of Miss Dorothea Laapp, only daughter of Rev. C. E. Laapp, D. D., and Mrs. Laapp, to Mr. James A. Gainsfort of Dublin, Ireland, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives, the culmination of a college romance. Promptly at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Bess Hagmeier, at the organ, entirely concealed by an artistic decoration of green, struck the chords of the wedding march, when the officiating clergyman, Dr. Laapp, took his place in front of the altar, which had been massed with palms and green beech boughs. In the center a seven-branched candlestick was flanked by a conventional arrangement of two tall baskets of magnolia, geraniums and two candelabra candles in tall white holders. The bride party entered, preceded by the best man, Arthur C. Wickenden of Chicago, followed by the ushers, Lieutenant Lowell Johnson of the Dayton aviation field, and Lieutenant Heron Spencer of Granville, both in uniform. John Bjelke of Columbia university, and Stuart Lapp of New Haven, Conn. Then came the bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Tipton of Gallipolis and Miss Ruth Nickel of Cincinnati, in becoming gowns of rose tulle over white satin and wearing corsage bouquets of pink roses. Miss Ruth Fergus of Tippicanoe City was the maid-of-honor who followed the bridesmaids and preceded the bride in the charming procession. She wore a handsome gown of white satin and carried a large colonial bouquet of pink roses. The bride wore a gown of white georgette crepe with a court-train of white satin, wearing a veil becomingly arranged with orange blossoms, and carrying a showy bouquet of white roses and swansonia. She was met at the altar by Mr. Gainsfort and the single ring service was beautiful and impressive. The bride party returned to the Laapp residence, where dinner was served, the bride and groom leaving at 10:30 o'clock for a two weeks' tour, points in Canada being their objective, from which they will return by way of New York and the east. The many handsome presents attest the popularity of Miss Laapp, who was graduated from Denison in 1916, where she had been identified with all important college and church activities and affiliated with the Chi Psi Delta Sorority. She taught for two years before enlisting for war-work in the nurses' training school in Johns Hopkins university. The signing of the armistice, however, put a period to that activity. Mr. Gainsfort, who is a British subject received his education at Denison, where he was a leader in every sense of the word. President of the student body, C. A. and of the men's fraternity—the Kappa Sigma—he exercised an ever-increasing influence. He graduated in '16 and left at once for India. He was made senior Y. M. C. A. secretary of the Mesopotamia district by the British and has been in charge of 30 huts. He has not fully decided whether or not to continue the Y. M. C. A. work at Baghdad or to accept a like position nearer home.

Miss Ruth Fergus, who has been a member of the house party at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Laapp, has returned to her home in Tippicanoe City.

John Bjelke, '16, one of the ushers at the Gainsfort-Laapp wedding on Saturday, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, is soon to sail for China with his wife and child, where he will teach in a school for higher education, and be absent from the United States for a period of seven years.

Among the guests at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Laapp for the week end, were Misses Ruth Fergus, Ruth Nickel, Margaret Tipton, Mary Monroe, Laura Palmer and Gertrude Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dorsey left at noon today for a month's visit at the home of their son Dr. H. G. Dorsey in Gloucester, Mass.

Miss Dorothy Atwell, '19, of Zanesville, was a week-end guest of the Misses Lockhart.

Mrs. E. J. Jones is enjoying a visit this week from her niece, Mrs. Albert Atwater and her son Grove of Cleveland.

Mrs. Clement Kelley has returned from a pleasant visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Jones of Fairview, Va., accompanied by Mrs. Virginia Bostwick of Newark. Mrs. Kelley says that though her father is 82 and her mother 86 years old, they are still hale and hearty.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES TO HELP HIGH PRICE PROBE

Cleveland, July 23.—The federal government is to take action in the offensive against food profiteering in Ohio and will co-operate with county and state officials in the investigation of exorbitant food prices which will be under way in earnest after a meeting of county prosecutors at Columbus Wednesday afternoon.

It was learned here today that two reports of the federal government were on their way to Ohio from Washington. They were to investigate into conditions that have their attention to an investigation that is being made by the Hamilton county grand jury into charges that retail sugar dealers have defied the law and are charging higher prices than figures fixed by the sugar equalization board.

The spread of state-wide investigation to a national inquiry into the price of foodstuffs followed the request Saturday of Governor James M. Cox that the state attorney general take immediate steps in running down alleged abuses in the marketing of foodstuffs and combinations declare to have tended to increase prices to the consumer.

The state-wide investigation, with a grand jury investigation in actual progress in Cuyahoga county, will be started following the meeting of county prosecutors at Columbus, Wednesday, according to County Prosecutor Samuel Doerflinger.

THERE GOES THE CORN NOW!

Chicago, July 23.—Danger that the domestic corn crop of 1919 would be cut in two by drought and hot winds, resulted today in hoisting prices more than six cents a bushel. Reports were current that the crop in the central states had already been damaged 25 percent.

Active buying carried the December delivery to the highest price yet this season, $1.72 1/2, as against $1.66 1/8 to $1.66 1/4 at the close on Saturday.

Can You Cycle? American Girls Home From France Intend to Revive the Sport

If you observe some young women, mounted on bicycle bravely thrumming their way in and out of the traffic on Fifth street, do not be surprised. Get ready for a bicycle invasion.

Two wheeled steeds are the commonest mode of transportation in the summer time in France and American women at workers are using them.

The style seems to have migrated across the English channel, where entire families with all the neighbors attached go out for all day rides in veritable squadrons of wheels.

Y. W. C. A. workers are using quantities of bicycles in France. In some nurses' clubs they are rented out to the nurses by the hour. In Tours, where the association has several centers, communication between workers is by bicycle. Train cars are infrequent, taxi scarce and walking takes too long.

"Away,
I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you—oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love there as the love of Here;
And loyal still, as he gave the blows
Of his warrior strength to his country's foes—
Mild and gentle as he was brave,
What the sweetest love of his life he gave
To simple things; where the violets grew
Pure as the eyes they were likened to.
Think of him still as the same I say,
He is not dead—he is just away!

His Parents, Brother and Sister.

Pecan Tree Valuable.

Of the nuts which are in general demand on the market the pecan brings the highest price, so that some of these big trees which are good bearers are decidedly valuable possessions. In fact, it is doubtful if there is another kind of individual wild tree which yields so much in dollars and cents as one of these big trees. Large pecan trees are known to frequently yield half a ton of nuts and the value of the crop of a single tree may be easily $100. An account was recently received by the Journal of Heredity of a large tree near San Antonio, Tex., measuring 15 feet in circumference which yields as much as 2000 pounds of nuts in a single season.

Mammoth Statue of Buddha.

The most remarkable image in Kamakura, Japan, is not in a temple. It is the well-known Dai Busto, or great Buddha, which sits alone in meditation with only the sky for a roof and casual visitors and a priest in attendance. The grove which surrounds the Buddha seems dwarfed beside his giant proportions. The statue is said to measure 50 feet in height, the head alone being 9 feet. This giant Buddha is one of the relics of Kamakura's thirteenth century greatness. It has survived because it is made of bronze plates fashioned by the best metal workers in Japan. It is one of Japan's very few monuments that can aspire to rival in longevity the pyramids.

MEETING FARM BUREAU HELD ON SATURDAY

A meeting of the Licking County Farm Bureau was held Saturday at the bureau offices. President W. C. Hall having called the township directors and workers together for the purpose. There was an excellent attendance, great interest being manifested, and the four out of town speakers furnished a most excellent program. The primary movement of the meeting was the launching of a better seed wheat campaign. W. G. Stover, plant district specialist of the Ohio State University, explained the wheat disease so prevalent this year and offered means and suggestions to combat them. T. P. Parks, insect specialist of the University warned the farmers to sow wheat not later than September 24 if they would avoid damage by the Hessian fly, which is an invader in Ohio. W. W. Brownfield, district superintendent of county farm agents of Columbus, explained the necessity of growing a pure variety of wheat rather than the common mixed varieties as the former will outyield the latter at least four or more bushels to the acre. The last speaker of the afternoon was John R. Miles of Purdue University. He explained the necessity of getting the farm home program into the hands of the farmers and also of seeing that more pure wheat is sown in Licking county.

PROPER AMERICAN IS SIMS ARE OF CHRISTIAN ORIGIN

Many Reasons Why Rear Admiral Has Obtained and Retains General Popular Regard.

Rear Admiral Sims came quietly into town the other day, made a speech or two, and when he left he had Washington hanging to his very abbreviated jacket tails. Folks here certainly did like the admiral. A popular idol that obtains the plaudits of Washington is pretty good. These are some of the things the people liked about the admiral: He said very positively that he will not write a book on the war; he referred to the navy's part in the war as its "stunt"; he boasted General Pershing to the skies, indicating that the admiral is without a jealous streak; he referred jokingly to himself as "the only rear admiral in captivity," and said he was glad to exhibit himself if the folks wanted to see him; and, best of all, he took time to talk with every one who could squeeze a word into his ears.

Down at the Union station, when the admiral was boarding his private car, a gray-haired woman rushed up and shook his hand warmly.

"This is the proudest day of my life, admiral," she said. "I now have shaken hands twice with you."

"All right, my dear lady," the admiral replied, raising his cap. "I'm glad if meeting me pleases you. Come around again the next time I'm in town and we'll shake a third time."

If any further proof that the admiral is human were needed, it might be stated that he plays a rattling game of handball.—Washington Star.

OLD THINGS UNDER THE SUN

Democracy in Ancient Jewish Days and the League of Nations, Are Two.

The democratic idea is of great antiquity, the Christian Herald reminds its readers. Under the prophets and rulers, Israel was a democracy. It was not until they were fascinated by the barbaric splendor and unrestrained license of the heathen nations around them that they began to be dissatisfied with their own simple ways and to long for a king and a showy court. It was the lure of sin and worldly vanity. Samuel warned them against courts and kings and told them of what would happen, but his warnings went unheeded. The vision of the age of peace began as early as eight centuries B. C., but it was not until the Christian era that the world change in the existing order fully dawned upon the minds of men. The idea of a league of nations is not new. Such a league was foreshadowed by Jean Bloch, in his remarkable book, "The Future of War," issued 20 years ago. It was also foreseen by Emanuel Kant, who, in his essay on "Perpetual Peace," wrote that the law of nations must be based on the federation of free states. At different times leaders in national and international reform have had visions of such a league, but always as a possibility of the remote future. It has remained for the United States to promulgate it at a time when the world seems prepared to listen.

Wiping Out Predatory Animals.

During 1918 hunters of the United States department of agriculture killed 83 gray wolves in New Mexico, 34 mountain lions, 15 stock-destroying bears, 1,860 coyotes, and 350 bobcats, we are told. These animals were killed at a total expense of $24,800, and the saving effected by their destruction, on the basis commonly accepted by stockmen, amounts to $215,950 annually. Hunting during the spring period destroys many young, and thus prevents increase. Many coyotes not accounted for in the figures given were destroyed by poison. The killing of these animals marks a long stride in extermination of gray wolves and other predatory animals, and the saving is cumulative for years to come.

Pass the Salt!

Two reporters were boasting of the speed of their shorthand writing. "Whenever I am reporting at a meeting on a warm evening, all the people try to get near to my table." "Why?" asked the other. "Because," said the pen pusher, "my hand goes so fast that it creates a current of air like a fan."

"A mere nothing," said number two. "I always have to report on wet paper, or else the current of air caused by the movement of my hand would blow it away. Besides the paper has to be wetted every few minutes, because the friction caused by the rapid movements of my arm would set fire to it in no time."

Use for Rat Skins.

Exhibiting the cured skin of a brown rat, the veterinary inspector of Newark, Eng., has pronounced such skins superior to the linings found in some expensive coats. The difficulty with creating a ratskin industry appears to be the uncertain source of supply; but the demand that would be aroused would be an incentive for destroying the rats that now constitute so serious a plague. The bodies of the animals should not be wasted, as they form suitable food for pigs, poultry and dogs.

Didn't Know the Groom.

"I made a terrible break today." "That so?" "Yes. You know I went to Lillian's wedding." "Yes." "Well, the other day I met Lillian on the street, and I didn't recognize the man with her as the groom."

LIVE STOCK SHOW PAYS BIG MONEY

Premiums, Totalling $10,000, Are Offered For Shorthorn Event Alone at State Fair.

BREEDERS ARE VERY ACTIVE

Second Annual Percheron Exhibition Will Be Another Outstanding Feature.

Featured by a $10,000 shorthorn event, the live stock show in connection with the Ohio State Fair, the last week in August, will have but few rivals in the nation, according to breeders who are entering their prize stock in competition for the liberal premiums that have been provided. Always famous for its show of live stock, the state fair this year will offer an extraordinarily attractive list of events for cattle, horses, swine and sheep. In the cattle department alone the premiums total $25,000, of which $10,000 has been put up for the big shorthorn event on Wednesday. This shorthorn classification is the largest and the awards higher than at any state fair in the past. Breeding for better stock has been increasing in Ohio for several years, and was given a particularly strong impetus during the war. It is to encourage the breeding of pure-bred animals that the state fair is holding out special inducements. Prices for all live stock have advanced materially and this has aroused greater interest among breeders. At present there is strong demand for both beef and dairy cattle of the better type. Another outstanding live stock event of the fair will be the second annual Eastern Percheron Breeders' show, with prizes amounting to $4,650, the largest ever offered except at the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915. The futurity classes, good for $1,500, have been thrown open to the world. The Ohio State Fair boasts the best sheep show in the country, and this year's exhibition is expected to measure up to standard. The sum of $6,500 will be distributed in this department. Premiums offered for swine run in excess of $7,300. Horses and cattle will be judged daily in the immense Coliseum, where there are seats for 6,000 persons.

TO RESTORE FAMOUS PARK

Bowling Green, With Its Ancient Fence, Will Again Become Show-Place of New York.

Modern New York will probably better appreciate its Bowling Green fence, recovered and restored to view by the Broadway association, for the incidental publicity of the restoration. When the fence was new, Bowling Green was an important part of the town, and the New Yorkers of 1770 considered it well worth while to import the fence from England and pay $800 for it. One is reminded that, shortly before the fence was put up, the loyal citizens, grateful for the repeal of the Stamp act, had adorned Bowling Green with a leaden equestrian statue of George III. For a while fence and statue stood there together; then the Revolution came, and the "Liberty Boys" pulled the statue from its pedestal. The fence remained till 1914, minus the gilt crowns that the "Liberty Boys" had hammered off the tops of the fence posts, but the famous park, lost in the growing city, was gradually neglected. When the fence returns to it, the park will be replanted with shrubbery, and Bowling Green made as much as possible like its historic self.—Christian Science Monitor.

Insisted on Showing His Patriotism.

He was full of patriotism, was the elderly man walking up State street the other evening, and it is possible that an unprejudiced observer might have suspected that he had taken something else aboard during the hours just past. At any rate, he was most patriotic and the sight of a sturdy doughboy gladdened his wandering eyes. The boy was acting as convoy to two maidens fair and wasn't particularly anxious to be sorted out for hero decoration at that moment, but the elderly man was not to be denied. He took off his cap with a flourish worthy of the days of chivalry; he loudly proclaimed his everlasting obligation and appreciation of the courageous soldiery that saved the world; he insisted on shaking hands, not once but thrice at least, with the young man whom he called "The savior of the country"—and he looked at the girls as if he thought his patriotism, expressed and partially understood, entitled him to an introduction to them. The doughboy made his escape as quickly as he could, blushing exceedingly. And as he went along he confided to the girls: "Gee, I wish I would have got overseas as easy as the old greaser got half seas over."—Hartford Courant.

The Knightly Pledge.

"Wats this Knights Commander of the Bath decoration they're hanging onto our generals over in England?" asked one wounded doughboy of another.

"Huh?" exclaimed his companion from Tennessee. "Reckon that must be th' prohibition division of the British service. All they gets to drink is the two well-known waters—but and cold."

Not Exactly.

"Mother," said a small girl, after contemplating her baby brother for some time, "was I a baby once?" "Yes, dear; we were all babies once."

"You and daddy, mother?" "Yes."

"And grandfather?" "Yes, of course."

"What, mother?" exclaimed the child incredulously, "with that beard?"

LIVE STOCK SHOW PAYS BIG MONEY

Premiums, Totalling $10,000, Are Offered For Shorthorn Event Alone at State Fair.

BREEDERS ARE VERY ACTIVE

Second Annual Percheron Exhibition Will Be Another Outstanding Feature.

Featured by a $10,000 shorthorn event, the live stock show in connection with the Ohio State Fair, the last week in August, will have but few rivals in the nation, according to breeders who are entering their prize stock in competition for the liberal premiums that have been provided. Always famous for its show of live stock, the state fair this year will offer an extraordinarily attractive list of events for cattle, horses, swine and sheep. In the cattle department alone the premiums total $25,000, of which $10,000 has been put up for the big shorthorn event on Wednesday. This shorthorn classification is the largest and the awards higher than at any state fair in the past. Breeding for better stock has been increasing in Ohio for several years, and was given a particularly strong impetus during the war. It is to encourage the breeding of pure-bred animals that the state fair is holding out special inducements. Prices for all live stock have advanced materially and this has aroused greater interest among breeders. At present there is strong demand for both beef and dairy cattle of the better type. Another outstanding live stock event of the fair will be the second annual Eastern Percheron Breeders' show, with prizes amounting to $4,650, the largest ever offered except at the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915. The futurity classes, good for $1,500, have been thrown open to the world. The Ohio State Fair boasts the best sheep show in the country, and this year's exhibition is expected to measure up to standard. The sum of $6,500 will be distributed in this department. Premiums offered for swine run in excess of $7,300. Horses and cattle will be judged daily in the immense Coliseum, where there are seats for 6,000 persons.

BEST FROM OHIO'S FARMS ON EXHIBIT

Unusual Display of Agricultural Products Is Expected at State Fair.

One will travel far and wide, agriculturists declare, to find a more representative showing of high-grade farm products than exhibited yearly at the Ohio State Fair. This department of the Buckeye exposition, a center of pride for Ohio farmers, never fails to attract a full share of interest, for it is here that visitors have opportunity to inspect a great deal of the best that is produced on the home soil. Homer C. Price of Newark, board of agriculture member in charge of the farm products section, is looking forward to the coming fair, the last week in August. More than $5,000 will be paid in premiums. Many farmers who were too busy with war activities last year to send exhibits will display products this year, early entries indicate. Large space is set aside in the farm products department for vegetables, which, it is believed, will be numerous at this fair. Exposition officials say they have reasons for believing that there will be a big show of melons. More than $600 prize money will be awarded for potatoes. County exhibits of farm products also will be a feature. These are to consist of complete and attractively arranged displays of all the field and garden crops common to the county. For this, more than $2,000 has been set aside. Cognizance has been taken of the rapidly increasing interest in bees and the production of honey in Ohio. This industry is growing to larger proportions each year, and to encourage its further development the state is offering $204 in premiums for best displays of honey, bees and bee products. Maple products also are to have their place. Ohio's maple syrup is known the country over. Rewards Boys For Dairy Work. To stimulate interest in dairying among boys on the farm and to instruct them in economical feeding, the management of the Ohio State Fair, to be held the last week in August, is offering $500 in prizes to winners of a milk and butterfat contest.

FIRST CALL WAS FOR SOAP

Nothing Germans at Coblenz Would Not Do for That Article—Pepper Came Next.

German supplies were getting rather short when the American army of occupation moved across the Rhine at Coblenz. The population was eating a tough black bread which was nothing more than a bran mash, wearing paper clothes, and going virtually unwashed, as they had no soap. There is almost nothing the Germans won't do for a piece of American soap. The washwomen will darn impossible holes in the doughboy's socks, mend his trousers, scrub his leggings, and would stand guard in his place if assured they will be rewarded with a portion of this delicacy. Soap takes the preference over cigarettes, chocolates or chewing gum. The Germans have an imitation soap they provide for the populace. It looks like soap and makes a rich-appearing lather, but it isn't soap. It doesn't do the work. You might as well try to shave with the foam from their bad-tasting beer as that soap. Having no oils or fats in it, it is plain camouflage.

Another thing the Germans are shy on is pepper. A person who has always had pepper might give it little thought and it probably would be the last thing included in an "iron ration," but go without pepper three years and you'll begin to think that it is the staff of life.

Soap and pepper are to the Germans what pie and ice cream and going home are to the American doughboys. —The Spiker of April, published in France by the United States Army Railway Engineers.

MARY HAD NOT FORGOTTEN

Movie Actress Tells Why She Long Has Had Grudge Against Robert Hilliard.

Robert Hilliard, actor, and best-dressed man in New York theatrical circles, was introduced to Mary Pickford recently. As they shook hands he smiled and said: "My dear Miss Pickford, I have wanted to meet you for a long time. This is a pleasure, I assure you." "Thank you, Mr. Hilliard," replied the movie actress, "but I must say your memory for faces isn't very good."

"Why?" he asked. "Some twenty years ago, when you were playing in 'The Littlest Girl,' in Toronto, you needed a child to be the girl. My mother offered my services. I was little Gladys Smith then. You looked me over and told me to go home and wash my hands."

"No, no!" replied the horrified Hilliard. "I couldn't have said that." "But you did," persisted Miss Pickford; "but I told you my hands weren't dirty—they were chapped. You finally gave me the job, but I took a dislike to you just the same."

"You did! Why?" "Because," concluded Miss Pickford, "you made me go home and wash my hands, anyway, and I detested soap and water in those days." "Well, I declare!" said Mr. Hilliard, as he arranged his boutonniere.—Rehoboth Herald.

Explained.

She was weeping bitter tears into her afternoon tea. "Oh, my dear!" she said to her only friend, "I don't know what I shall do. Ted and I have only been married six months, yet he spends every evening at his club."

"Well, don't worry, darling," said the other. "Percy's just the same. But I shall never scold him again for spending so much time at his club."

"Why not?" "Well, last night a burglar got into the house and my husband knocked him senseless with a poker. I've heard several men speak of him as a poker expert. He has evidently been practicing at the club for just such an emergency."—Exchange.

Rescue Cage.

Less thrilling than being rescued and carried down on a swaying ladder, but much more practical, is a new rescue cage. When the fire ladder is thrown against a burning building it carries with it a wire cable attached to a steel cage. Like an elevator without a shaft the cage hangs from its pulley at the top of the ladder, within easy reach of the windows. It is lowered by turning the cable drum on the fire truck below, and will carry four passengers safely.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Bright Rupert.

The lesson was on the rabbit. "The rabbit has long ears, fur on its body, and a tail, nothing to speak of, though," the master informed the class.

The next day he wanted to see what they knew about it.

"Now, then, Rupert," he barked to a particularly bright youth, "tell me something about the rabbit."

"The rabbit has a tail," said Rupert, citing his silent fellows triumphantly, "but it mustn't talk about it."

Just So.

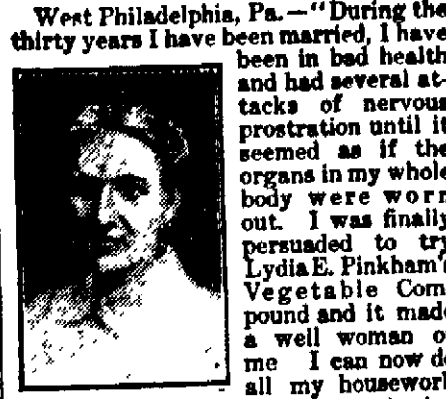

She was teaching the word "element" to a sixth grade. She had told them its meaning—the substances of which a thing is composed—and then had illustrated her definition by saying that the elements of the earth were water and soil.

Then she asked them to write sentences containing the word. And this is the one Henry wrote: "Water is one of the elements of milk."

Financial Report Shows
How 125 Million Is Used In War.

HALF MILLION BASEBALLS BOUGHT FOR U. S. SOLDIERS

Spent 43 Millions In Work With Army Groups In France.

New York, July 22.—First detailed accounts of the receipts and expenditures of the Young Men's Christian Association, made public here today by the organization's National War Work Council finance committee, show that $125,000,000 was received by it between April 26, 1917, and March 31, 1919. Total expenditures amounted to $17,570,000 in the period named. It is stated, however, that the balance of $107,430,000 is estimated to be sufficient to carry on the work of the association until next December 31.

According to the figures, which appear over the signatures of George W. Perkins, chairman of the committee, and Edwin H. Dodge, treasurer of the War Work Council, and W. H. Whitman, comptroller, slightly more than two per cent of the total funds contributed by the American public were expended for religious purposes in the United States and overseas, while approximately 80 per cent was devoted to the purchase, transportation and distribution of clothing, supplies and to entertainments, education and athletic sports.

In addition to the provision of free clothing, which included, among other things, the United States army alone, 57,000 baseballs and 20,000 sets of boxing gloves, the report says the Y. M. C. A. distributed overseas $26,832,449 worth of merchandise, of this merchandise $1,791,771 worth, or approximately five per cent was given free to the soldiers, including overseas Christmas gifts and entertainments worth $651,041.

Of the $17,570,000 expended, it is shown, more than $10,000,000 was spent in the home country, more than $4,000,000 with the American Expeditionary Force abroad and $1,400,000 for work with the A. E. F. and prisoners of war. The balance went for other expenses. The statement explains that the Y. M. C. A. suffered a loss of $1,478,847 in the operation of army post exchanges and canteens, also, owing to the depreciation in value of French and British currencies, the conversion of the overseas figures to market rates, resulted in a book loss of $2,202,099.

The report, the committee makes clear, is not final because the war service of the Y. M. C. A. which reached its maximum in March of this year, is still continuing in the United States and foreign countries. The war work campaigns for funds, it points out, brought from the American public $123,274,952 and this amount, the report states, was augmented to $125,252,550 by some other sources.

Some idea of the magnitude of the work accomplished by the organization is shown by the statement that more than 97,000 concerts, vaudeville performances and other entertainments were staged by the Y. M. C. A. in American canteens to an aggregate audience of 4,200,000 at a cost of $1,166,756. In addition, free motion pictures shown in the home camps necessitated an outlay of $233,471.

Expenditure of 600 hats for men in training camps on this side cost $7,682,284 and the outlay for maintenance was $2,565,736. "These buildings," says the report, "were centers of religious, educational, entertainment and athletic activities for all men who passed through the camps on their way overseas or who used the centers through the period covered by the report and are still using them."

Overseas, the statement says, work of every kind was accomplished. The food of more than 1,000,000 men and tents built or leased for the use of the A. E. F. cost $4,001,271 and were equipped at a cost of $2,550,421 and operated and maintained at a further expense of $1,811,507.

Written materials and newspapers for the overseas men, including 400,000 copies of the latter paper, half in French envelopes and 16,000,000 postcards, cost $2,200,000. For motion picture shows, in which 12,000,000 feet of film were used, the cost was $1,000,000. The report also states that 10,000,000 feet of film were used in France alone, and that 10,000,000 feet were used in the A. E. F. camps.

Transportation of supplies and equipment to the A. E. F. cost $1,000,000. The report also states that 10,000,000 feet of film were used in the A. E. F. camps.

The report also states that 10,000,000 feet of film were used in the A. E. F. camps.

OHIO MINES ARE KEPT AT WORK

Mine Workers' Union Officials Say Buckeye Miners Working 70 Per Cent of Time.

Columbus, July 22.—Ohio coal miners are operating from 65 to 70 per cent full time as compared with 45 per cent three months ago, when thousands of miners were idle, according to officials of the United Mine Workers of Ohio. Practically all mines in eastern Ohio, the union officials said, are working nearly full time. In the Hocking or southern Ohio district, some mines are still closed down, but conditions are improving rapidly, the officials asserted. Approximately 15,000 of the 50,000 miners in Ohio were idle from the signing of the armistice until three months ago. The demand for coal is becoming better and business is improving, and even when business is not so good, it will be going on, they said. Another coal shortage, they said, will be one in the winter of 1919-1920, but it will be suffered in Ohio and the middle west.
